About Gentle Monster

Brand Overview

- Gentle Monster is an experimental eyewear brand known for merging art, fashion, and technology.
- Mission: To create an eyewear experience that goes beyond utility—allowing wearers to express individuality, explore imagination, and enter the futuristic visual world crafted by the brand.

Current Marketing Channels

- Digital: Instagram, TikTok, YouTube, official website
- Offline: Global flagship stores, art installations, themed exhibitions
- Communication Style: Highly conceptual and visually avant-garde. While this reinforces brand distinctiveness, it also highlights the need for more approachable and participatory communication, especially for expanding engagement in the U.S. market.

Why Gentle Monster × Adidas

- A widely recognized lifestyle brand in the U.S., now moving toward a more fashion forward positioning.
- Existing cycling and ski goggles prioritize performance but lack a strong fashion driven design.

Why the U.S. market

- Sport and fashion increasingly overlap
- Light sports are part of everyday urban life

Campaign Goal

Reposition Gentle Monster as a brand that is not only artistic, but also approachable and integrated into active everyday lifestyles, using adidas as a familiar entry point in the U.S. market.

Key Message

“Clear Vision, Bold Style”

Strategy

/01 Immersive Experience Focused Strategy

We merge digital allure with tangible, interactive physical experiences. The retail spaces and pop-up will transform online hype into real-world, shareable moments, creating a seamless journey from discovery to purchase.

/02 Community Driven Co-Creation Strategy

We turn customers into brand advocates by designing highly shareable moments. This shifts marketing from brand broadcasting to authentic peer-to-peer storytelling, fueling organic reach and building lasting community loyalty.

Channel & Tactics

Event Activation: Urban Pop-Up Activation in Los Angeles

Snow-Inspired Art Installation (Outdoor)

- Channels : Face-to-face
- Tactic: An outdoor snow-inspired art installation is placed outside the pop-up venue in the Melrose District of Los Angeles.
- Using abstract forms, reflective materials, and icy textures, the installation previews the skiing environment in an urban context.

The installation functions as a visual landmark and photo point, encouraging social sharing while building anticipation for on-slope use of the ski goggle collection.

Channel & Tactics

Event Activation: Urban Pop-Up Activation in Los Angeles

Pop-Up Store (Indoor)-- Product Display Zone

- Channels : Branding
- Tactic: Inside the pop up store, the snow goggle collection is displayed in a clean and organized layout. Goggles are grouped by lens color and functional features. The central table breaks down the lens structure including anti fog coating, UV protection, and scratch resistance. Product feature videos play continuously on the back wall.

Channel & Tactics

Event Activation: Urban Pop-Up Activation in Los Angeles

Pop-Up Store (Indoor)-- AR Fitting Zone

- Channels : Face to face
- Tactic: The AR experience allows visitors to virtually try on the ski goggle collection and preview how different styles perform and appear on the slopes.
- Rather than encouraging daily wear, the activation helps visitors visualize their ski identity before heading to the mountains, supporting decision making in an urban setting.
- After the virtual try on, the system generates a personalized “Ready for the Slopes” visual that visitors can save or share on social media.
